Sumitomo Chemical Announces Reorganization

Sumitomo Chemical hereby announces that, effective October 1, 2026, the Company will change its organization as outlined below.

Head Office:

To extend the reach of the Production & Safety Fundamental Technology Center's fundamental production and safety-related technologies and expertise to entities outside of the Group, Sumitomo Chemical will revise the scope of the center's responsibilities. Its name will also be changed to the Advanced Production Solution Center.
